IN FLORENCE AND TUSCANY

WELCOME

It's an unusual winter with unseasonably warm days breaking up the cooler nights. It's beautiful weather for walking in the streets and countrysides, but a worry for this year's vintages as the grapes risk going into growth phase too early! Let's cross our fingers for the winemakers as we enjoy the sunshine. It is the month of Carnevale parades and parties, as well as Black History Month Florence which grows rapidly every year and now offers more than 60 events to immerse ourselves in a multicultural experience of Florence and its past and present. We hope you celebrate love in whatever form it embraces you on Saint Valentine's Day, and have a sweet and celebratory February with best wishes from SUZANNE, CORSO, BEI, LESLIE, VANNI, ANNA PIA, RAFFAELLA, AND MARISA.

BEST ANNIVERSARY FOR FEBRUARY: FLORENCE HONOURS ANNA MARIA LUISA DE MEDICI

February 18

February 18 celebrates the greatest patroness of the arts in Florence history, Anna Maria Luisa de' Medici, the creator of The Family Pact. She was the last of the ruling line of the Medici family, as she and her brothers failed to produce any heirs before their deaths. However, she left behind an extraordinary legacy in the form of The Family Pact, which bequeathed the considerable artistic patrimony of the Medici family, accrued over three centuries, to the city of Florence. The condition stipulated within the Pact was to prevent any of the patrimony from being removed from Florence or the state of Tuscany. Instead, she insisted, everything must remain on display in Florence, for all time, “for the use of the public and to attract the curiosity of foreigners.” It is she that we have to thank for the vast majority of treasures that make Florence the artistic mecca that it is today. In honour of Anna Maria Luisa, Florence opens its Civic Museums with free entry for the public on the day of her death, February 18. Be sure to include a visit to the Medici Chapels to pay your respects. Civic museums: Palazzo Vecchio, Museo del Novecento, Brancacci Chapel, Santa Maria Novella, Museo Stefano Bardini.

BEST PARTY FOR FEBRUARY: IL CARNEVALE CELEBRATIONS IN VIAREGGIO!

Until February 17

The celebrations for Il Carnevale happen all over Tuscany, but by far the most famous and exciting is the famed Carnevale in Viareggio. There are four chances to see the Masked Parade in February, as well as the “Great Ending Fireworks”. If there was ever a time to make the trip outside of Florence, this is it. The parades, parties, fireworks, masked balls, theatre, and culinary events are truly over-the-top. Wear clothes you don't care too much about, because it's a given that you'll end up sprayed with foam and sprinkled with confetti! Old, young, and everyone in-between, joins in the silliness.

The Viareggio Carnival started in 1873 when a number of local aristocrats decided to organize an extravagant parade on Shrove Tuesday (martedì grasso), before the 40-day austerity of Lent. The five masked parades through the seaside town will each have their own set of papier-mâché floats and puppets, which will parade along the famous viali a mare, down the seaside promenades, offering a wide program of entertainment and fun for children and adults. Bands and other performance groups come from all over the world to participate. At least 800,000 visitors enjoy the Viareggio Carnival each year.^{brit}

The floats are the true crowd-pleasers. They take an entire year to construct. The biggest floats, over 20 meters high and weighing 40 tons, will carry about 200 people in costume who will dance and throw confetti and candies. Other people will be inside the floats to maneuver the weights, the counter-weights and levers that will make the puppets move. The paper maché puppets satirize public and political figures, depict social issues, as well as fairy-tale heroes. Noteworthy, is the program of related events including a large number of shows and cultural activities such as musical comedies in vernacular, a series of carnival menus available in the restaurants, festivals in the various neighborhoods, as well as numerous masked balls held in the most fashionable discotheques and ballrooms.

Parades start 3pm. Find more information here.

BEST MUSIC FOR FEBRUARY: NOTE AL MUSEO AT THE MUSEO DELL'OPERA DEL DUOMO

February 16

February concert: The Duo Gazzana on violin and pianoforte.

In its third edition Notes to the Museum, the concert series realized by the Opera of Santa Maria del Fiore, is held every year in the spectacular Sala del Paradiso of the Museo dell'Opera del Duomo. A real concert season, first created for the inauguration of the new Museo dell'Opera del Duomo, which has since attracted the attention of music fans for the quality and special features of the concerts.

The creator and artistic director is Francesco Ermini Polacci, who designed the new program with the full support of the president of the Opera del Duomo Luca Bagnoli. Artists of international fame who are rarely present in the usual concert circuits, and specially designed programs make the concerts of Note at the Museum unique. They are a moment of dialogue between works of art and music, in the name of beauty.

The concerts are free admission with compulsory reservation (while seats are available). To meet the increasing number of requests from the public outside of Florence, this year it will be possible to book the concerts in two ways: going in person to the concierge of the Art and Culture Center (piazza San Giovanni 7) or by filling out the appropriate form on the website. In both cases, bookings start from the Thursday of the week preceding the concert date (9.00 - 12.00).

BEST DINING OUT FOR FEBRUARY: FLORET OPENS ON THE UPSTAIRS TERRACE OF LUISA VIA ROMA

(Text from Girl in Florence)

“New opening in Florence !

Floret is a contemporary urban garden restaurant located inside Luisa Via Roma in their upstairs terrace. We stopped by to check out their weekend brunch menu taking breakfast up a notch with items such as burrata-topped waffles and “Shakshouka” (a dish of eggs poached in a sauce of tomatoes, chili peppers, and onions, often spiced with cumin), plus cold-pressed juices, salads, coffee, bagels, porridge bowls and excellent cocktails. I definitely foresee this being a success as a cozy, fashion-forward hang out point just steps from the Duomo. Open 10:30-19:30 daily.”

LIGHTS BY ADRIAN PACI

Until February 11

(Text from: theflorentine.net)

"Albanian artist Adrian Paci makes his Tuscan debut with Lights to Serve the Night (Di queste luci si servirà la notte), a solo exhibition exploring the concepts of migration, identity and ebbs and flows of populations. For Paci, mobility is an ontological condition of the human race. The Museo Novecento is the main hub of Lights to Serve the Night, exhibiting 15 works—three of which have never before been displayed—while clustered work at Le Murate and satellite sites in Pelago and Montelupo Fiorentino will expand the show's reach. Paci's central themes are highlighted through rather esoteric means: a highlight of this show will be the "skeleton" of a tentacled boat that was recently sent down the Arno, digging a groove in the river floor to reveal its depths. A video of the installation's findings and artistic statement will be on display in the Museo Novecento's Sala Grande. For more information, see the Museo Novecento website."

Until March 18

The quality of the wool, and later the silk, of the Florentine products reached, despite the very high costs of raw materials and dyes, a unequalled level of excellence. In spite of wars, frequent epidemics, as well as financial crises and social conflicts this was the new art of Florence. The exhibition highlights examples of material and textile in paintings."

The concept of modern art in the late Middle Ages and Renaissance

28 February 2018 - 18:00, Lecture in English by Robert Brennan

In retrospect, scholars have often studied the Italian Renaissance as the cradle of modern art. But what did it mean to describe art as 'modern' during the period itself? Following period usage of this word (in Latin, modernus), Dr Brennan has found that a concept of modern art (ars moderna) was in fact widespread throughout late medieval Europe, and played an indispensable role in Florentine art writing from the 1390s forward, especially with regard to Giotto's legacy.

The Cultural Programme is open to members of the British Institute of Florence. Membership options range from 24 hours to Life. For membership see here.

SHOWS AT TEATRO VERDI

The 'Teatro Pagliano', which assumed its current name, 'Teatro Verdi,' in 1901, was built during the Grand Ducal period in Florence on the former site of the fourteenth century Stinche Prison. During the nineteenth century, Florence – which was also the capital of Italy - witnessed the construction of many theatres. The Teatro Verdi is the only one still in operation, having lived through a century and a half of history and tremendous change. For Florence and the whole Tuscan region, this theatre represents the focal point for special events and occasions, musical events, and popular performances. The Teatro Verdi was the dream project of Girolamo Pagliano. Pagliano was a former baritone and successful pharmacist who invented an elixir for long life. One of the seven largest theatres in Italy, its importance was clear from its inauguration on September 10th 1854. Viscardello, the original title of Verdi's Rigoletto, was the theatre's inaugural performance. The tradition continues today, with wonderful events and concerts at the stunning venue.

While remaining a long-standing landscape interpreter, Escher explores more and more the horizons of visual illusion, through geometric compositions, or creating "impossible" architectures.”

VASARI, JACONE, E LA MANIERA BIZZARRA: 500 SELECTED WORKS AT THE MUSEUM IVAN BRUSCHI OF AREZZO

Until February 18

Text from: discovertuscanycan.com

The theme of the exposition: the aversion of Giorgio Vasari (from Arezzo) for certain artists. He even went as far as to describe these artists as having a: "bizarre" approach to the manner (style of art), shamelessly insensitive to him, and to the aesthetic ideal of "grace" that characterizes the excellence of pictorial production of the period.

This is a special “outreach” exhibition connected to the ongoing show at Palazzo Strozzi 'Il Cinquecento exhibition in Florence. Between Michelangelo, Pontorno and Giambologna'. This showing in Arezzo feature work by artist from the same time period: Jacone, Tommaso Bernabei, called Il Papacello, Maso da San Friano and an unpublished 'Madonna with Child' made by Bacchiacca.

IL CAPRICCIO E LA RAGIONE: FASHION EXHIBITION AT THE TEXTILE MUSEUM OF PRATO

Until April 29

(From discovertuscanycan.com)

“The Fashion Elegance of Europe in the 1700’s.

Whimsy and Reason. Staged in the museum’s historical textiles room, the exhibition is a journey into the style and trends of eighteenth-century artistic culture, through fashion, textiles and the decorative arts. A unique and unprecedented exhibition stretching over a hundred years, one which is so rich and complex like that of the eighteenth century. More than 100 objects will be exhibited including fabrics, women's and men's clothing, porcelains, shoes, buttons, gloves, headgear, paintings and engravings that will tell the continuous and significant style passages that follow this historic period, from exotic "whims" of the first half of the century up to the classical austere forms of the neoclassical.”

FUN, FESTIVALS AND FOOD OUTSIDE OF FLORENCE FOR FEBRUARY

CARNEVALE FESTIVALS ALL ACROSS TUSCANY

Throughout February

(From discovertuscan.com)

“In Italy, as in all Catholic countries, Carnival is celebrated between January and March, in the period between Epiphany (January 6) and Easter. The word "carnival" comes from the Latin "carnem levare", a term that refers to the condition of abstinence from meat and fasting of the faithful during Lent (40 days before Easter). The weeks of Carnival were a period of celebration with elements common to ancient traditions such as the Roman Saturnalia and the Greek Dionysian celebrations.

The Carnival is celebrated today throughout Italy with colorful parades, floats and fun events for children and adults. The Carnival of Venice is certainly one of the most famous in Italy, but in Tuscany there are also several very popular events including the Carnival of Viareggio and the Carnival of Foiano della Chiana.

The Carnival ends (or at least it should end) with Mardi Gras (Martedì Grasso or Fat Tuesday) and although in Italy it is not a day of festivity, on the occasion there are events and parties everywhere, even in smaller cities. Even if then Lent starts, several Carnival parades continue on the Sunday after Mardi Gras.”
